

Fall Colors Trees & Shrubs

From Whiston, Norris - Hardwoods Shrubs and Trees of Northern New England, eastern Quebec, and the Maritimes © Canada 2024-07-28 Leaves are sorted first by color, then by shape and finally by cut. Leaves similar are placed beside each other.

PURPLES, PINKS, RED

Following colors vary & mix.

white ash: pinnate, oval, tipped, fine teeth, stemmed, prpl > brown pasture rose: pinnate, lft: lance, coarse toothed, sometimes orange > red staghorn sumac: pinnate, lance, rnd base, teeth, hairy stem blackberry: palmate, egg-shaped, coarse toothed poison ivy: trifoliate, oval, irregular toothed hobblebush: heart-shape, irregular teeth, heavily vein, leaves opposite red-osier dogwood: egg-shape, smooth undulate, veins > parallel, leaves opp., red stems.

arrowwood: egg-shaped to round, coarse teeth, deep veins wild raisin / witherod: elliptical-lance, slightly-toothed, curls, contrasting vein.

pin cherry: lance, point tip, teeth, red, orange yellow

REDS Also highbush cranberry

Virginia creeper: palmate coarse tooth northern red oak: 7 lobes, sharp tips red orange, purple > brown red maple: 3 lobes, sharp sinus, irreg. double teeth yellow, orange, burgundy alte-leave dogwood: egg-shape smooth undulate, veins > parallel.

lowbush blueberry elliptical - lance fine teeth

ORANGES

sugar maple: 5 lobes 3 point each, u-sinus, orange, but many colors at times, Norway maple: 5 lobes 5 pts each u-sinus hooked tips, + tar spots yellow org mountain maple: 3 lobes sharp-sinus rounded teeth, veined trembling aspen: egg-shape, fine-tooth choke cherry ovate—elliptical, sharp toothed, black cherry: elliptical-lance glossy, fine teeth, veins' ends connect, twigs almond smell

YELLOWS

Manitoba maple: pinnate, lobed wild grape: 5 lobed, coarse-toothed [Thomas Ave., Truro] London plane: short-pointed © Norris Whiston 2021 Canada

norrisw@ns.sympatico.ca 28 July 2024 3:31 PM Version striped maple: 3 lobe, toothed, pointed tips gray birch / old farm birch: triangular, long tail, coarse teeth balsam poplar: egg-shape fine teeth, sticky buds trembling aspen: egg-shape, fine-teeth, tipped large-toothed aspen: egg-shape scalloped teeth white birch: egg-shape irregular toothed, tapering tip beaked hazelnut: egg-shaped double toothed (big/small/...) crab-like, rugose elm: asymmetrical double-toothed (big/small), crab-like, rough surface basswood / linden: asymmetrical with tip, coarse saw teeth witch-hazel: asymmetrical round-toothed undulating edge, yellow birch: oval and slightly heart-shaped, coarse teeth hophornbeam: oval-elliptical double-toothed

Indian pear / serviceberry: oval – elliptical, fine saw-toothed meadowsweet: oval to obovate, yellow to pink, coarse toothed white ash: pinnate stemmed, oval, fine teeth northern mountainash: pinnate lance fine teeth burr oak: 7 lobes, deep wide sinus northern red oak: 7 lobe, sharp tips, red orange > brown beech: oval-ellipt coarse teeth, pleat

GREEN OR BROWNING
Also bog laurel, bunchberry black locust: pinnate oval smooth, green-brown or yellow black ash: pinnate fine tooth, no stems, green-brown often yellow, apple: green-brown or yellow © Norris Whiston 2021 Canada

norrisw@ns.sympatico.ca